WE SAFEGUARD Investor Rights in Singapore

SIAS is the largest organised investor lobby group in Asia, with almost 70,000 retail investors as members. It is a registered charity run by a management committee comprising of professionals who are volunteers and actively promotes Investor Education, Corporate Governance and Transparency.

SIAS has successfully organised over 1,000 investor education programmes ranging from basic investment seminars for novices to certificate courses for savvy investors. More than 135,000 retail investors have benefitted from these programmes, which are mostly free of charge. SIAS is able to provide a variety of investor education programmes to members and the investing community at large through collaborations with financial institutions and listed companies interested in investor education as part of their corporate social responsibility agenda.

Over 1,000 Successful Investor Education Programmes

▪ Investment Chapters

Covering stocks, ETFs and Unit Trusts, this programme helps beginners create an investment portfolio and understand the psychology of investing.

▪ Analysing Companies Financial for Smart Investing

Teaching investors to analyse a company's financial performance through case studies and simple terms for easy understanding.

▪ Understanding Money

In collaboration with Peoples' Association, this talk helps senior citizens make smart money decisions and protect themselves from financial abuse.

▪ Dialogue Sessions

SIAS mediates issues affecting shareholders amicably, engaging companies in the boardroom in a conciliatory approach rather than a contentious one.
